

Put Peace of Mind on Your To-Do List for Fall:

Let Distinctive Petsitting Keep Your Pets Comfy at Home

Early evenings, busy days, back to school...autumn is in the air! As you juggle the family's fall calendar and work/travel schedule, there's no need to stress over who's looking after the pets in your household.

A professional pet sitter can bring peace of mind as the season goes into full swing. Your well-loved pets can be happy at home, reassured by the comfort of familiar surroundings and routines.

An ever-growing number of pet parents in the NW Atlanta area rely on Distinctive Petsitting to care for their animal family while they're away. The company rests its reputation on integrity, professionalism, and superior service. Clients confirm that the team delivers on that promise with each visit:

"You will not find better quality service. They take the time to get to know you and your pets and it is obvious the pet sitters genuinely and passionately love animals. Trustworthy, reliable, responsive, extremely professional, loving...I can't say enough good things about Distinctive Petsitting!" [kudzu.com]

Trust, Integrity, and Superior Service Begin with Putting Your Pet First

Building a bond of trust does not happen by chance. It begins with the understanding that pets are beloved family members with individual personalities and physical needs that may require special consideration.

"Caring for animals is a 'labor of love' for all of us at Distinctive Petsitting," says President Lisa Howard. "Once we are your pet sitting company, we are no longer strangers. You can count on us as caregivers to your precious pets and home."

Distinctive Petsitting brings its philosophy to life by offering a checklist of the best features and services available to pet parents. To list a few examples:

- Professionals who make their living caring for animals. Each Distinctive Petsitter is carefully screened, bonded, insured, and veterinary recommended. All have had the experience of being pet parents. "A work ethic centered on pets' well-being is a prerequisite for the job," says Lisa.
- A knowledgeable team. "With almost 20 years and 100,000 visits under our belts, to say that we are experienced is an understatement."
- Customized, round-the-clock pet sitting or dog walking schedules for puppies, dogs, cats, fish, birds, most crated exotics, and medicated pets. On-demand service is available to clients with unique scheduling requirements.
- Distinctive Petsitters are experienced in administering oral, topical, and subcutaneous injections and fluids and caring for special needs pets.
- A community spirit. The Distinctive Petsitting team expresses its passion for pets and the unconditional love they provide through giving back to the animal community. Advocating for pet

Well-Meaning Loved Ones and "What ifs...?"

Distinctive Petsitters make your pets the top priority, says Lisa. "Let's face it, if your fall is busy, your neighbors, friends, and relatives are probably equally as booked. Life happens to everyone. Well-meaning loved ones can disappoint you with unexpected cancellations and family priorities."

She adds that a seasoned pro is a reassuring resource if the unexpected does occur. Pets are in the hands of professionals who handle emergencies and a wide variety of unusual situations on the job every day.

100 More Shopping Days 'Til Christmas!

Lisa concludes with some words of advice for those who want to put their pets in the loving hands of a pro: "Call now! It's never too early to schedule a pet sitter for the bustling fall and winter holiday season."

More about Distinctive Petsitting...

*Lisa Howard began pet sitting as a hobby when she was a young adult living in Vinings. She turned her pastime into a full time "labor of love" in 1993, leaving a successful but increasingly unfulfilling corporate career to open her first pet sitting service in the Washington DC metro area. With her supportive husband, Quinn, Lisa has now returned to her roots and serves the Smyrna, Vinings, Mableton, and NW Atlanta communities.
